

ADAM OFFSHORE INDIA PVT. LTD.

COMPANY OVERVIEW

About Us

Adam Offshore India Pvt. Ltd. is a strategic alliance between Ambico Group, a leader in subsea engineering and structural grouting solutions, and ADCI Pvt Ltd, a premier provider of marine logistics and offshore vessel services.

Together, we deliver end-to-end offshore support services to the Oil & Gas industry, both in India and internationally—combining engineering excellence with operational expertise to meet the evolving demands of the global energy sector.

As part of its portfolio, Ambico Group successfully operates grouting services in association with FoundOcean Ltd. (UK) under Ambico FoundOcean Grouting Services, bringing over 75 years of combined global experience in offshore grouting. The Planetary mixers specializes in structural pile grouting, freespan correction, and pipeline stabilization, with a track record of delivering complex, time-critical projects using innovative equipment like Recirculating Jet Mixers, Batch Mixers & Planetary mixers.

The JV, Adam Offshore India Pvt. Ltd., with its precision manufacturing facilities and fully integrated engineering teams, is committed to delivering safe, scalable, and reliable offshore solutions designed for today’s challenges and tomorrow’s possibilities.
